Some come true
while others become plays
never to be performed.

Concept: Potential

Group Discussions

- What do you see as your potential for your life at this time?
- What do you need to do to make your possibilities become “plays that are performed?”
- What do your peers and teachers see as your possibilities? Do you think they are right?
- If money and time were not problems, what would you do as the most important possibility in your life?

Activities

Put together a collage that shows the directions you may take in your life.

Make a presentation about the possibilities you believe you have for your life for the next 5 or 10 years.

Design and build a sculpture that represents what “possibilities” means to you.

Have a panel discussion with three of your friends concerning the possibilities of their futures. You be the panel moderator.
