

Lesson Information Index

Use this chart to locate information in this book to find information to generate an effective lesson.

Lesson Development Characteristic	Book Chapter
1. Clearly defines the (IEO) Indicator, Expectation, or Objective for the lesson.	Chapter 1
2. Incorporates the appropriate level of Bloom's Taxonomy.	Chapter 2
3. Clearly indicates resources and materials needed for the lesson.	Chapter 2 and Chapter 6
4. Clearly states the goals of the lesson – what students are expected to know.	Chapter 1 and Chapter 4
5. Clearly defines the student product – what students are expected to do.	Chapter 6
6. Indicates a careful diagnosis of student need.	Chapter 4
7. Instructional layers are designed appropriately; if not layers, meets the needs of diverse learners.	Chapter 5, 6 and 7
8. Contains an appropriate assessment plan.	Chapter 8
9. Includes individual or group sharing and/or reflection.	Chapter 8
10. Time and/or method of individual or group feedback to students is planned.	Chapter 8
11. Plan for re-teaching, remediation, or lesson expansion.	Chapter 4, 5, and 6
12. Time frame for the lesson is appropriate and well developed.	Chapter 7