

Noun Practice With Questions

First, fill in the blanks with nouns. (Yes, sometimes there is more than one correct answer.) On the next page, compose your own list of questions with blanks for missing nouns. Trade papers with a friend and then fill in the blanks.

What did _____ say to _____?

What did _____ do to _____?

Are _____ and _____ going along?

Did you forget to bring your _____ and _____?

Is the _____ broken?

Why did _____ do that?

Why didn't _____ or _____ want to go?

Why hasn't _____ come home?

Why can't _____ see the difference?

Why doesn't _____ come along?

Where can _____ go to get the _____?

Will the _____ go as fast as the _____?

How many _____ and _____ are in the box?

Who is that standing next to _____?

What kind of _____ tastes good?

Who will change the _____?

When is the best time for _____ to turn off the _____?